- Open to all Georgia residents who are eighteen years of age or older.
- Artists may enter up to three works per category of their own original and untutored work. Works previously shown in this exhibition may not be entered. Works must have been completed within the last three years.
- Non-refundable entry fees are $5 per piece, payable to the Georgia National Fair upon entry form submission September 1.
- Unless specified NFS, it is assumed that all work is for sale. Please provide a sales price with your entry. Artists may also provide a Purchase Award price. For information regarding the Purchase Award program, please refer to the Fine Art Section of the premium book at http://www.georgianationalfair.com/_fairresults/georgia_living_program.htm. No commission will be attached to sales. Sold works must remain on exhibition until the close of the show.

*Dave Barringer is a retired professor of Biology with 45 years experience in woodturning. He served on the board of directors of the American Association of Woodturners for eight and a half years and also served as president for two years. He is still an active member and serves on the Advisory Committee and the By Laws and Policies Committee.

Dave has displayed in most of the top art shows in Florida and also in Georgia, Pennsylvania, and Michigan. His work is found in many public and private collections. Because of his extensive knowledge of wood and turning techniques, Dave demonstrates at many clubs and symposiums. He teaches woodturning regularly at J. C. Campbell Folk School in North Carolina and has also taught at Arrowmont school of Arts and Crafts in Tennessee and at the Maine School of Woodturning. He has judged the turning category at the Florida State Fair several years and has critiqued many turning displays.
