

CLASSIC CITY WOODTURNERS
Minutes from Meeting
April 23, 2011

I. Greeting and Introduction

- A. Four visitors recognized
- B. No new members recognized

II. Old Business

A. Treasurer's Report: Ron Leuthner reported that the check book balance as of 4/23/11 was $2015.72.

B. President Grant introduced the new CCW Banner and reported that a 10x10 foot tent has also been purchased to be used at outdoor club events such as the forthcoming Statham and Winterville Marigold Festivals.

III. New Business

A. President Grant announced that the May meeting will be scheduled for May 24 to avoid a conflict with the Memorial Day Holiday which occurs on May 31st.

B. Members are asked to contact Walter McRae or Lynn Reece if you

1. Wish to transfer your turned pieces to the Oconee County Library

Exhibit

2. Do NOT wish to transfer pieces to the OCLE and would like to retrieve those pieces.

3. Wish to ADD a piece to the OCLE.

C. CCW will participate in the Statham Farmers Market on Saturday, April 30. Contact Walter or Lynn if you wish to participate in the woodturning demo. We will be permitted to sell items at this event.

D. CCW will participate in the Marigold Festival on May 21. We will have a non-profit exhibitor booth at no charge to the club. We ARE NOT permitted to sell turnings at our booth. If any members are interested in selling objects, you must arrange with festival organizers for a separate booth for which a fee is charged. If you are interested in assisting at the CCW exhibitor booth, please contact Walter McRae.

IV. Demonstration: Our demonstrator for the Saturday, April 23rd Saturday workshop was Beth Ireland. Beth's demonstration was part of a nationwide tour, Turning Around America, where she has reached over 2000 people with her program of turning and lecturing on arts and crafts and art appreciation. You can see more of her work at: www.turningaroundamerica.com. The club purchased a DVD of her woodturning technique and is available for member use.

Respectfully submitted,

Bill Gohdes, Secretary
