

MEMBERS GALLERY- April 2010

photography courtesy of Monika Takacs

An interesting textured box turned from sycamore by Dean Brady

A nicely shaped cherry goblet turned by Dean Brady

A classically shaped vase turned from pear by Nancy Graham

A colorful "Betty Boop" bottle stopper turned from cocobolo by Dean Brady

An attractive natural edge oak bowl turned by Michael Hollis

A nice potpourri dish turned by Michael Hollis from a peach crotch with embedded seed

A beautiful coffee scoop turned from ebony by Bill Van Wie

A collection of boxes with spinning top lids turned by Jim Talley from African mahogany and purple heart

A very nice lidded bowl with a textured top turned from cherry and "Georgia ebony" by Don Fournier

A nicely shaped lidded box turned from spalted peach by Frank Lether

An attractive oak bowl with an oak rim turned by Frank Lether

Two very stylish seam presses made by Jim Underwood from cherry and osage orange

A spectacular tall vase turned from persimmon and filled with epoxy by Jim Talley

A beautiful large bowl turned from spalted poplar by Roy Grant