

MEMBERS GALLERY- February 2008

An attractive natural edge walnut bowl turned by Dean Brady

A classic shaped bowl turned by Dean Brady from wormy chestnut

A very nice platter turned from bubinga by Dean Brady

An attractive lidded box turned from bocote by Frank Lether

Another nice lidded box turned by Frank Lether from locust

A beautifully platter turned from a walnut crotch by Jim Underwood

A nice bowl turned from spalted pecan by Jim Underwood

A nicely proportioned bowl turned from spalted maple by Roy Grant

Two very nice walnut bowls turned by Bill Gohdes

A very attractive natural edge pine bowl with a collection of eggs turned by Michael Hollis

Two very colorful bowls turned from composite material by Bob Nix

A nicely shaped walnut goblet turned by Jim Underwood

Another very nice collection of eggs turned by Michael Hollis in a natural edge pine bowl

A very stylish pepper mill turned by Don Fournier

An interesting laminated bowl turned by Bob Nix

Another attractive composite material bowl created by Bob Nix

A beautiful lidded vessel turned by Lou Kudon

A distinctive hickory bud vase with flowers turned from pine by Don Fournier

A stylish lidded vessel turned by Lou Kudon

A very interesting natural edge goblet turned from mimosa by Jim Underwood

An attractive small bowl turned from persimmon by Bill Gohdes

A nice laminated bowl turned from knotty alder by Dean Brady

A lamp base turned from dogwood and cherry by Bill Gohdes