

MEMBERS GALLERY- February 2009

A very nice poplar platter turned by Roger Jessup

A natural edge platter turned from a cherry burl by Roger Jessup

A birdhouse turned from maple and holly by Dave Williams

An attractive hollow form turned by Lou Kudon

A natural edge oak bowl turned by Roger Jessup

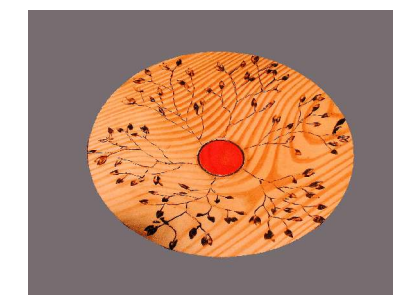

Bottle stoppers turned by Michael Hollis from macassar ebony, osage orange and spalted hackberry

Three very nice bowls turned from mahogany and maple by Bob Foote

A natural edge osage orange bowl turned by Ron Leuthner

A nicely decorated pine platter turned by Ron Leuthner

A natural edge maple bowl turned by Ron Leuthner

An acorn birdhouse turned by Dean Brady

An attractive goblet turned from magnolia by Dean Brady

A very nice lidded urn turned from box elder and walnut by David Luther

A classic maple platter turned by Bob Foote

Lathe stand and work bench built by Bill Van Wie

Turning tool rack built by Bill Van Wie