

MEMBERS GALLERY- January 2009

A very attractive snack bowl turned from spalted maple by Ken Johnson

A dip bowl of black walnut which sits in the snack bowl at the left also turned by Ken

Two very attractive vases turned by Jim Underwood from elm (left) and sweet gum (right)

An attractive birdhouse turned from walnut by Frank Lether

A very distinctive jewel box turned by Frank Lether from maple

An interesting goblet turned from maple with an off center stem by Jim Underwood

A very interesting spiral stem goblet turned from buckeye by Don Fournier

Another interesting spiral stem goblet turned by Don Fournier from buckeye

A miniature goblet turned by Jim Underwood

A beautiful candle stick holder turned from walnut by Dean Brady

A very attractive spiral bud vase turned from laminated maple and walnut by Don Fournier

Two very nice pens turned by Bill Van Wie

A classic shaped bowl turned by Bill Gohdes from dogwood