

MEMBERS GALLERY- January 2010

photography courtesy of Monika Takacs

A stylish ornament turned by Jim Underwood from maple and walnut

A nice bowl turned from cherry by Tony Fleming

A classic natural edge bowl turned from pear by Dean Brady

A natural bark box with interesting inlays turned by Dean Brady

A very interesting bowl turned from laminate by Dean Brady

A nicely shaped bowl turned from spalted sweet gum by Dean Brady

A collection of attractive pens turned by Michael Hollis

A collection of very nice miniature vessels turned by Michael Hollis

An interesting bowl turned from very wormy wood by Roger Jessup

An attractive back scratcher turned from blood wood by Bill Van Wie

A beautiful set of chess ornaments turned by Ken Calkin from holly and walnut

A very distinctive pen display case built by Don Fournier

A nice rendering of a Nick Cook Christmas angel by Jim Underwood

A very nice pepper mill turned from mahogany by Bill Van Wie

A rainstick made from plywood by Don Fournier

A very distinctive walking stick turned and dyed from maple by Don Fournier