

MEMBERS GALLERY- November 2009

An attractive lidded box turned from spalted cherry by Frank Lether

Two very nice pens turned from Bolivian rosewood by Bill Van Wie

A bottle stopper turned from mallee burl by Bill Van Wie

An attractive desk clock turned from cherry by Nancy Graham

An attractive bowl turned from magnolia by Steve Doster

A classic bowl turned from ash by Nancy Graham

A very nice bowl turned from laminated cypress by Dean Brady

A stunning natural edge cedar bowl turned by Michael Hollis

A pretty cherry bowl turned by Bill Gohdes

Another nice cherry bowl turned by Bill Gohdes

An interesting steam whistle turned by Chandler McRae from muscle wood

A pretty birdhouse turned from cedar and aspen by Roy Grant

A collection of sputnik shell ornaments turned by Roy Grant

An attractive large bowl turned from very old pine by Jim Talley

Two miniature bowls turned from dogwood seed pods by Michael Hollis

A beautiful chalice turned from Bradford pear
by Don Fournier