

MEMBERS GALLERY-September 2010

photography courtesy of Bill Van Wie

An attractive tea light turned by Don Fournier from persimmon and "Georgia" ebony

A nice pen turned by Michael Hollis from cherry wood

A stylish walnut bowl turned by Frank Lether

A candle holder turned from cherry by Dean Brady

A pizza cutter with walnut handle made by Dean Brady

A distinctive mushroom salt shaker turned by Rex McGough

Two very nice cherry bowls turned by Bill Gohdes

An attractive bowl turned from osage orange by Steve Johnson

A beautiful lidded bowl turned from cherry and a walnut burl by Jim Underwood

A distinctive multi-piece hollow form turned from white oak and walnut by Jim Underwood

An assortment of Christmas tree ornaments turned by Jim Underwood

Two pretty Christmas bell ornaments turned from elm and walnut by Jim Underwood

A collection of Christmas mice created and turned by Jim Underwood

Example of wine goblet turned by our demonstrator Peg Schmid